

Membership In Rotary

Membership in any Rotary Club is by invitation only to business, professional and institutional leaders in the community.

Each Rotarian holds a classification, representing the business' activities or service to society, such as banking, retail service, etc.

The classification principle assures that membership reflects a cross-section of the community and fosters diversity of interests.

Rotarians meet weekly to share friendship and to plan or work on service opportunities.

Join us for a free lunch!

ROTARY

- ◆ The Rotary Club of Plainfield-North Plainfield meets every Wednesday at 12:15 PM for lunch at Giovanna's Restaurant, 1462 South Avenue, Plainfield.
- ◆ Rotary Club meetings normally include a program on current issues and items of interest to the community.
- ◆ The Rotary Club is a member of Rotary International, an organization of nearly 1.2 million members in over 165 countries.
- ◆ The Rotary Club supports the communities of Plainfield and North Plainfield through service to youth, civic activities, scholarship programs, support for local initiatives to promote good will and understanding.

Rotarians are guided in business and personal life by a number of key principles, including The Four Way Test.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Is it beneficial to all concerned?

The Rotary Club's mission is working together in four avenues of service. We enhance the quality of life and human dignity, encourage high ethical standards, and create better understanding through . . .
